

AIR HITS AGAIN

Station X Lends Aid After Newport Holdup

Cincinnati's biggest policeman—Station X—had another good mark Wednesday.

Station X was responsible for the arrest of three youths, registered as Clifton Schweitzer, 20, of 520 W. Eighth-st; Charles Lipscomb, 22, of 517 Powell-st, and Russell Downard, 19, of 135 W. Eighth-st, all of Newport, charged with robbery.

Getting a report of a holdup Tuesday night Newport police had Station X describe the bandits on the air. A citizen seeing two youths loitering at Ninth and Linden streets, Newport, telephoned police. Schweitzer and Downard were arrested, Lipscomb being taken into custody later at his home.
