An Ordinance No. 125

- 2019

MODIFYING the provisions of Title VIII, "Business Regulations," of the Cincinnati Municipal Code, by ORDAINING new Chapter 856, "Short Term Rentals"; MODIFYING the provisions of Title III, "Financial, Personnel, Procurement and Real Property Procedures," of the Cincinnati Municipal Code by ORDAINING new Chapter 315, "Short Term Rental Excise Tax"; and MODIFYING the provisions of Title XV, "Code Compliance and Hearings," of the Cincinnati Municipal Code by AMENDING Sections 1501-3, "Class A Civil Offenses," 1501-7, "Class C Civil Offenses," 1501-8, "Class C1 Civil Offenses," and 1501-9, "Class D Civil Offenses," in order to establish a registration program for the operation of short term rentals.

WHEREAS, advances in technology have enabled residential property owners all over the United States and the rest of the world to connect with potential renters in need of short term accommodations through the use of short term rental applications, websites, or other platforms; and

WHEREAS, the short term rentals made possible by these changes have given rise to a unique business model, unlike hotels and other forms of lodging, that engages a full range of market participants ranging from homeowners and apartment dwellers to institutional investors and that further can range in character from distinctly residential to distinctly commercial; and

WHEREAS, on one hand, short term rentals offer supplemental income for City residents, including the chance to rent property for short periods of vacancy or while trying to sell, and short term rentals also increase tourism, providing access to the City for people who might not otherwise visit, and showcasing neighborhoods of the City that may not often host tourists; and

WHEREAS, on the other hand, the City has received complaints and heard disputes between neighbors of property owners who list their properties for short term rental, as some renters have committed noise violations or otherwise failed to show civility and respect for the impacted neighborhood and its residents, such that the properties constitute a public nuisance that threaten the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens and residents of the City; and

WHEREAS, in addition, the City seeks to ensure that properties that are being rented out for short periods meet minimum safety and sanitation requirements, including all existing requirements in applicable building codes, zoning codes, housing codes, and fire codes; and

WHEREAS, the City also seeks to raise revenues through taxation of short term rentals to provide funds to be used to preserve and develop affordable housing, the supply of which housing could be substantially reduced by the creation of new short term rental units in the city; and

WHEREAS, Council desires to strike a balance between allowing property owners to use their properties as they see fit, including offering the property for rental for short periods of time, and also requiring that such property owners remain accountable for their properties and the short term rental activities at the properties; and

WHEREAS, Council also desires to ensure that an outsized short term rental industry in Cincinnati, in light of its population and physical area, does not create a dearth of affordable housing and does not artificially lead to quickly increasing housing rentals City-wide or in particular neighborhoods; now, therefore,

BE IT ORDAINED by Council of the City of Cincinnati, State of Ohio:

- (g) Upon good cause, the treasurer may waive penalties otherwise owing under this chapter for an operator's failure to pay amounts due.

Sec. 315-15. - Failure to Collect and Report Tax, Determination of Tax by City Treasurer.

- (a) If an operator fails to directly pay or cause a hosting platform to collect or withhold the tax prescribed by this chapter or to make within the time provided any report and remittance of the tax or any portion thereof, the treasurer shall proceed in such manner deemed best to obtain facts and information on which to base the estimate of the tax due. Upon procuring facts and information upon which to base the assessment of any tax imposed by this chapter and payable by, or on behalf of, an operator, the operator who has failed or refused to collect the same or to make a report and remittance, the treasurer shall proceed to determine and assess against the operator the tax, interest, and penalties provided for by this chapter. The treasurer shall give a notice of the amounts assessed by serving it personally on the operator or by depositing it in the United States mail, postage prepaid, and addressed to the operator at its last known place of address.

- (b) An operator may within ten days after the serving or mailing of notice of amounts due make application in writing to the treasurer for a hearing on the amount assessed. If the operator does not apply for a hearing within the time prescribed, the amounts assessed by the treasurer shall become final and conclusive and immediately due and payable. If an application for a hearing is made, the treasurer shall give not less than five days' written notice in the manner prescribed herein to the operator to show cause at a time and place fixed in said notice why the amount assessed should not be fixed. At the hearing, the operator may appear and offer evidence why the amount assessed should not be so fixed. After the hearing, the treasurer shall determine the proper amount to be assessed and shall give written notice of the decision to the operator in the manner prescribed herein. The amount assessed shall be payable after fifteen days unless an appeal is taken as provided in Section 315-19 of this chapter.

Sec. 315-17. - Penalties and Interest.

- (a) Delinquency. Any operator who fails to remit any tax imposed by this chapter or cause a hosting platform to collect and remit such tax in the manner required and within the time required shall pay a penalty equal to ten percent of the amount of the tax, in addition to the tax.
- (b) Fraud. If the treasurer determines that the non-payment of any remittance due under this ordinance is due to fraud, a penalty equal to twenty-five percent of the amount of the tax shall be added thereto in addition to the penalties stated in subsection (a) hereof.
- (c) Interest. In addition to the previous penalties imposed, any operator or hosting platform who fails to remit any tax imposed by this chapter in the manner required shall pay interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, on the amount of the tax, exclusive of penalties, from the date on which the remittance first became delinquent until paid.
- (d) Penalties During Pendency of Hearing or Appeal. No penalty provided under the terms of this chapter shall be imposed during the pendency of any hearing provided for in Section 315-15 of this chapter nor during the pendency of any appeal to the city manager provided for in Section 315-19 of this chapter.
- (e) Abatement of Interest and Penalty. In cases where a return has been filed in good faith and an assessment has been paid within the time prescribed by the treasurer, the treasurer may abate any charge of penalty or interest or both.

Sec. 315-19. - Appeal.

Any operator or hosting platform aggrieved by a decision of the treasurer assessing liability for taxes, interest, or penalties accruing under this chapter may appeal to the city manager by filing a notice of appeal with the city manager within fifteen days of the serving or mailing of the determination of tax due. The city manager or his or her designee shall fix a time and place for hearing such appeal and shall give notice in writing to the person at his, her, or its last known place of address. The findings of the city manager or his or her designee shall be final and conclusive and shall be served upon the appellant in the manner prescribed above for service of notice of hearing. Any amount found to be due shall be immediately due and payable upon the service of notice.

Sec. 315-21. - Records.

It shall be the duty of every person liable for the collection and payment to the city of the tax imposed by this ordinance to keep and preserve, for a period of three years, all records as may be necessary to determine the amount of tax for which the person may be liable, which records the treasurer shall have the right to inspect at all reasonable times.

Sec. 315-23. - Refunds.

- (a) Whenever the amount of any tax, interest, or penalty has been overpaid or paid more than once or has been erroneously or illegally collected or received by the city under this chapter, it may be refunded as provided in subsection (b) hereof provided a claim in writing therefor, stating under penalty of perjury the specific grounds upon which the claim is founded, is filed with the treasurer within three years of the date of payment. The claim shall be on forms furnished by the treasurer.
- (b) No refund shall be paid under the provisions of this section unless the claimant establishes a right thereto by written records showing entitlement thereto.

Sec. 315-29. - Severability.

If any section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase of this chapter or any part thereof is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this chapter or any part thereof. The city council hereby declares that it would have passed each section, subsection, subdivision, paragraph, sentence, clause, or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, subdivisions, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

- (c) No person required by this chapter to make, render, sign, or verify any report or claim shall make a false or fraudulent report or claim with the intent to defeat or evade the determination of any amount due.
- (d) Failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall constitute a Class C1 civil offense as defined by Section 1501-8(a) of the Cincinnati Municipal Code.
- (e) In the alternative to subsection (d) hereof, whoever violates any of the provisions set forth above is guilty of a first degree misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $500, imprisoned for a period of not more than six months, or both.
